

Dr. DeGroot is a PhD. prepared nurse, Board certified in Adult Gerontology as an Advance Practice Registered nurse. Tina has dedicated the last 35 years of her career to preventing and treating vascular diseases and joined Stoughton Health's Cardiology Service in 2022. Born and raised in Stoughton, Tina has dedicated her work to assuring rural health patients and families have access to cardiovascular health care, education, and services supportive of living high quality lives. Tina has also been an active faculty member since 2016 for Edgewood University committed to educating the next generation of Nurse Practitioners and Clinical Nurse Specialists.