

Dr. Sriram is Board Certified in Internal Medicine Cardiology with 40 years of experience in Interventional and General Cardiology. He graduated from JJM Medical College Mysore University India in 1977. His extensive career includes working in Internal Medicine in the United Kingdom, completing Internal Medicine Residency and Cardiology fellowship (including Interventional Cardiology training) at Chicago Medical School and Saint Francis Hospital Loyola University, serving as a consultant cardiologist at King Faisal Specialist Hospital Riyadh (including as cardiologist to King Fahd of Saudi Arabia), and practicing cardiology in Racine, Wisconsin, until 2021. Dr. Sriram joined Zenith Healthcare in 2021. He is married and has two sons.